"A favorite song of the band is "A Lil' Boukou in Your Cup." Listening to the groovy song you'll agree that as far as funk goes, "[They] got just what you need, too much is never enough."

I am a SUCKER for funk and New Orleans style music. Which is why Boukou Groove is right up my alley. Now when they say they've played at numerous festivals and clubs nationwide they aren't kidding. These guys definitely have an impressive resume.

Now you get to enjoy them for yourselves. I know I've been enjoying them and now I can't wait to see them live! Radio Host PACO X101.5 Tallahassee - iheartradio - The Paco Show - Local Highlight June 2020

BOUKOU GROOVE BIO

NEW ORLEANS . EMERALD COAST

Formed in late 2010, Boukou Groove is a New Orleans Power funk, soul, and jam band composed of veteran-vocalist/keyboardist/ & Moog Bass, Donnie Sundal, and guitarist, Derwin "Big D" Perkins. The combination of Big D's gripping N'Awlins funk guitar, Donnie Sundal's wailing keyboards plus "blue-eyed soul" voice and World class drummers (including Alvin Ford Jr., Jamison Ross, Will Purvis) have lit up audiences around the world. That same chemistry has been distilled into their albums A LIL' BOUKOU IN YOUR CUP (2012) and LET THE GROOVE RIDE (2015). Boukou Groove brings their brand of "New Orleans Soul Funk" to audiences along Florida's Emerald Coast and New Orleans clubs like the Maple Leaf and Tipitinas, they have also appeared at numerous festivals and clubs nationwide, also completed two tours in Japan, performing to capacity crowds on the Live Magic! Festival and the Blue Note in Tokyo. A LIL' BOUKOU IN YOUR CUP features special guests Sam Bush, the father of Newgrass, on mandolin, and Junior Marvin of Bob Marley's Wailers on guitar. The song "Two To Tango" to date, has enjoyed 2+ million plays on Spotify. Boukou Groove frequently does collaborative shows with some of the top names in the live music scene, including, Ivan Neville, Big Sam Williams, George Porter Jr., Roosevelt Collier, Nigel Hall, Kabuki (Rebirth Brass Band), Rockin Dopsie Jr. and Sam Bush. The groove has continued with the band making their debut at the 50th New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, and releasing a brand new single "Never Steal Our Thunder". Currently, they are back in the studio finishing a 3rd Full Original Album at Neptune Recording in Destin FL.
